ODDIE SPEECH MAKES BIG HIT IN GOLDFIELD

Candidate For Senator Given
Rousing Reception in Nearby City

Ex-Governor Oddie was introduced Saturday evening as "the best known man in Nevada, and a son of the state." The Republican candidate for senator said as he arose that he was flattered by the introduction and would, if elected, try to conduct himself in the United States senate as to deserve the praise.

"My friends," said Mr. Oddie, "Nevada is called the battle-born state. Abraham Lincoln needed Nevada and the votes of her two senators to forward the policies which resulted in winning the Civil war. He received Nevada's full and firm support in the crucial times of the early years. I want to say to you that the time has again come when a senator from Nevada may make or break the union."

The candidate explained that one United States senator might alter the political complexion of the next congress. A senator from Nevada, he said, was as great as a senator from New York; and yet one vote for senator in Nevada accomplished as much as approximately 150 votes in the Empire state. He gave population figures as something like 90,000 for Nevada and 13,000,000 for New York.

Mr. Oddie said this is a most important campaign. The people are demanding of the Democratic party a report of its stewardship. It is admitted that gigantic problems confronted the administration during the world war, but had that administration selected the most able men to carry forward its policies, and had the chosen ones patriotically done their best? Later on, after citing many interesting facts, he declared the Wilson administration had favored great business combinations in a scandalous manner.

The Democratic candidate for president, said Mr. Oddie, stands for the league of nations as advocated by President Wilson. The Republicans oppose it. One reason for this opposition which is not commonly mentioned is the Japanese question. If the United States were to become a member of the Wilson league, it might occur that the question of Japanese exclusion from this country would come up in such a manner that the matter would be settled altogether by foreign countries. He went into details as to how this might come about.

Again, the speaker declared the United States did not need the league of nations in order to help it keep peace. He cited the case of Canada, with which this country had lived at peace for 150 years, without a fort or a gun on the thousands of miles of border. He referred to the proposed treatment of labor under the league covenant and said that under the international plan United States laborers would be regulated by a vote of 124 foreigners to four Americans.

"The condition of the laboring man in America," said the speaker, "is the highest and best in the world. We do not want the standard to be lowered by foreign votes. Would such a condition of affairs be just to our workers? Will the American workingman support a party which advocates such policies?"

Candidate Oddie paid his respects to Candidate Henderson by saying they were friends, but they differed materially in politics. Mr. Henderson, said Oddie, is now telling the people of Nevada that he believes in protection for Nevada products, and will favor that policy if returned to the senate. Mr. Henderson will not

MCQUILLAN WINS REAPPOINTMENT

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11.—The appointment of James McQuillan as postmaster of Tonopah, Nevada was announced today.

The term for which Mr. McQuillan received his appointment this morning will be his second as postmaster of Tonopah. He received his first commission on March 17, 1916, and it extended until March 17, 1920. The commission which he received this morning dates from June 4, 1920 and will continue until that date in 1924. His appointment went to the senate on June 4 and was confirmed but the commission did not arrive in Tonopah until this morning. His many friends in this city are congratulating Mr. McQuillan today upon his reappointment.

LEGION PROGRAM WEDNESDAY EVE

A program on Americanism which promises to be one of the best ever given in Tonopah has been arranged by the local post of the American Legion for Wednesday evening, October 13, at the Arlington State Adjutant T. L. Withers of Reno and State Chaplain Henry H. Sanborn of Sparks will arrive in Tonopah Wednesday morning and will make the principal address of the evening, and Judge Mark R. Averill has been asked to speak by the local post. Post Commander Dr. C. H. Church will preside at the meeting.

The state convention of the Legion at its last session determined to carry on this work in the principal cities of Nevada, and appointed Mr. Withers and Mr. Sanborn to tour the state making the addresses under the direction of the local posts. No admission will be charged, and it is the desire of the committee in charge that the citizens of Tonopah turn out in force to hear the program. Lieutenant's orchestra will furnish music for the program and later the post will give a jitney dance.

be able to do anything of the kind, said Oddie. If Democrats control the senate he must vote with his party in the organization, and a majority of all important committees will be Democrats. The Democratic platform declares against protection Senator Henderson, a Democrat, cannot obtain it for Nevada.

Mr. Oddie made telling points against the Democratic administration in the matter of sugar profiteering. He declared the people had been deliberately robbed in one year of $1,012,000,000 in this one item and he gave figures to prove it. Starting figures were given regarding free importation of beef, mutton and wool, which a Republican protective tariff would have prevented.

"Personality has disappeared from this campaign so far as I am concerned," said Mr. Oddie. "The question is not whether Henderson or Oddie shall be elected senator, but shall a Republican or a Democratic United States senator be elected in Nevada? The votes of the people in this theatre may determine the vote of the United States senate next year."

A report of Mr. Arenz's speech in Goldfield will appear in tomorrow's Bonanza.

CUBA SUSPENDS PAYMENT DEBTS

(By Associated Press)
HAVANA, Cuba, Oct. 11.—Havana for the Cuban financial crisis was placed on "exaggerated estimates" of banking conditions in a decree last night proclaiming a moratorium which will expire locally December 1 or to extend the period if it was deemed advisable. Present conditions in Cuba have been due largely to the mass of business transacted during the state of prosperity, the tightness of the foreign markets, and the fall in the price of sugar. During the moratorium period, depositors may demand only 10 per cent on current accounts and 12 per cent on savings accounts of less than $2000.

(By Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 11.—"The league of nations case is about ready for the jury," Governor Cox declared here today in an address launching his Illinois campaign.

RECEIVER ASKED FOR NEV. PACKARD

Appearing for the creditors of the Nevada Packard Mines company, the Lovelock Mercantile company has filed an application in the Reno district court for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the affairs of the mining company, probably the largest company operating in the Rochester district, says the Virginia Chronicle. Herman Davis, superintendent of the mill at the Packard mine, was named as receiver, and will likely be appointed to that position. It is stated in the petition that the mining company's liabilities are $35,000. Assets greatly exceed that figure, it is said.

Mark Walser of Reno, president of the Nevada Packard Mines company, said the principal cause leading up to the application for a receivership is the necessity of the mine being closed throughout the past summer because of lack of power. Now, although the mine has resumed operations, the officials find they have not enough cash on hand to meet their liabilities, according to Walser. The receivership is apparently satisfactory to all concerned. The Nevada Packard mine has been one of the largest silver producers in the state.

Salt Lake Sugar Men Tried as Profiteers

(By Associated Press)
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 11.—Charges of profiteering in sugar have been filed against the Utah-Idaho Sugar company of Salt Lake, as a corporation and its officers in the courts of Idaho, Utah and South Dakota. The Idaho case was scheduled to be brought to trial first.

All the charges are the outgrowth of an increase made by the company in the wholesale price of beet sugar on May 1, 1920, from $13 to $22.75 per 100 pounds. The increase, it was charged, was authorized at a meeting of the board of directors in April.

Soon after the increase was announced, an investigation was started by Floyd T. Jackson, chief of the department of justice bureau of investigation of Salt Lake City. Mr. Jackson, after the investigation, charged the company with having made exorbitant profits through the selling of sugar at $22.75 per sack, declaring it cost $9.44 to produce the sack.

The Idaho case charged violation of the lever act and cited instances of where sugar was sold at its highest price at Pocatello, Idaho. The Utah case to be tried in November, also charges violation of the lever act. Indictments in Utah were returned against the company and its officials by a special United States grand jury, meeting at Salt Lake in August. The South Dakota case was filed against the company last, and cited 10 specific instances of where sugar was sold at the advanced price at Sioux Falls.

OFFICIAL TEXT OF WILSON TALK IS MADE PUBLIC

White House Gives Its Side of Controversy With Senator From Missouri

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11.—The White House today made public the official version of President Wilson's address in the eighth plenary session of the Paris peace conference. The exact wording of his address has been the subject of a controversy between the president and Senator Spencer, Republican, of Missouri, who quoted from what he said was a reliable transcript and gave the president's words as follows: "You must not forget that it is for the peace of the world, if the world is again troubled, the United States will send to this side of the ocean their army and their fleet."

The White House official version gives the wording as follows: "How can a power like the United States, for example—and I can speak for no other after signing this treaty, if it contains elements which they do not believe will be permanent, go 2000 away across the sea and report to its people that it has made a settlement of the peace of the world? It cannot do so. And yet there underlies all of these transactions the expectation in part, for example, of Rumania and of Czech-Slovakia and Serbia, that if the covenants of the United States will send her armies and her navies to see that they are observed." The official version of the text of the president's address was furnished to the White House by Fred Carlson, of Chicago, an official stenographer with the American peace delegation.

Registration under the law closes tomorrow, October 12, and all who wish to vote in the general election should see to it that their names appear on the great register.

SCHOOL CENSUS SHOWS INCREASE

According to the Carson News, reports at the office of the state superintendent of public instruction show that the school census of Nevada for the year in which the federal census was taken, was as follows: In 1900, 9975; 1910, 12,443; 1920, 14,455. It will thus be seen that during the past decade Nevada children in the school census, which is generally taken, increased 2042 in number, or about 16 1/2 per cent. When these figures are taken into consideration it causes all the more surprise at the announcement that Nevada's total population the first of the year was only 77,407, a decrease of practically 5 per cent from the 1910 total of 81,875.
